RIFLE BALL ENTERS HOME

Stray Shot Fired by Careless Boy Narrowly Misses Woman.

Last Tuesday evening, about 5:30 o'clock, while Mrs. Jackman was busying herself about her home on Live Oak avenue, a bullet crashed through the thin wall, struck the opposite side of the room, rebounded and dropped to the floor. As the missile sped across the room it narrowly missed Mrs. Jackman and startled her severely.

The bullet was a leaden one and came from a rifle in the hands of a careless boy—old enough to know better than to shoot promiscuously within the city limits—or anywhere else.

It seems that some boys were handling the rifle and one of them casually remarked: "Watch me hit that hydrant," whereupon he took aim and fired, but evidently the bullet merely glanced on the rounded metal, with the above result.

As the city is not provided with an ordinance prohibiting shooting within the city limits, nothing can be done with the boy except to warn him of further carelessness.

Hey For Sierra Madre.

The cross-country clubs of the Los Angeles Polytechnic high school, composed of boys and girls in separate parties, are taking several fascinating and instructive trips about the country. The Sunday Times states that the most ambitious outing yet undertaken has been planned for this vacation week, when Prof. Kile, who is at home on every road and trail in the vicinity, will direct a trip to Sierra Madre. A stormy session of the walking clubs was held preparatory to this trip. One set of boys wanted to walk to the scene of action, another wanted to ride to Sierra Madre and take tours to Mt. Wilson and other points. One faction was determined to camp in the open and to sleep on the ground; the other contingent wished to sleep in beds and do the convenient thing.

A compromise was effected at last. Two trips were determined on, one to take next Tuesday and Wednesday, and the other to be begun Friday, April 26, when a party will walk from Sierra Madre to Mt. Wilson by moonlight. The boys will sleep there and come back through a part of the country where they will blaze their own trail.

The camaraderie and exchange of ideas between teachers and pupils is one of the great benefits of these outings which are something on the order of the summer tramps taken by the German professors and their pupils, absorbing nature and geography at first hand.

Good health, drunk in Adam's ale, good spirits, and good times wait on these tramping tours.

The editor of the News, Charles W. Hill, has been confined to his home sick this week, but we hope he will be able to again take charge of his office very soon.

The Old-Time Fiddle

A PARODY.

NOTE—This poem has never before appeared in print. It was written by Chas. P. Mann, a printer and violinist.

How dear to my heart is that old-time fiddle,
When I think of the lads and lassies I've seen
In the "grand right-and-left, chassa up the middle,"
As they danced to the tune of "The Maid on the Green."
Its tones to my ear were as sound-waves from heaven,
And like laughing angels they came at my call,
To gladden the heart with their mystical leaven,
To the tune of "Sweet Erin" or "Lanigan's Ball."

The old-time fiddle, the rag-time fiddle
The sweet-toned fiddle that hangs on the wall.

That old-time fiddle indeed is a treasure,
For often at eve, by the old cabin door,
I'd while away hours in ecstatic pleasure,
While my foot kept time on the old cabin floor.
How often I grasped it with ardent devotion

And played till the chinks from the cabin would fall—
So loud were the strains, so deep my emotion,
When I played the old fiddle that hangs on the wall.

The old-time fiddle, the rag-time fiddle,
The deep-toned fiddle that hangs on the wall.

No dire stress of fortune would tempt me to sell it,
Tho' another as good might replace it forsooth,
For it alone tells—as no tongue could tell it—
Of "the lost chord" of passion that chimed in my youth.
And now long removed from those dear friends of mine,
The tear of regret will unconsciously fall,
As I play "Rock of Ages" or "Auld Lang Syne"
On the old-time fiddle that hangs on the wall—

The sweet-toned fiddle, the rag-time fiddle,
The old-time fiddle that hangs on the wall.

* Woman's Club. *

The regular meeting of the Sierra Madre Woman's Club was held Monday afternoon, April 8. Mrs. Alice Merritt Davidson, the well known author of "The Wild Flowers of California," was the speaker of the afternoon. Mrs. Davidson talked most interestingly upon our "Heritage of Wild Flowers." She asked her audience for greater sympathy with, and appreciation of the beautiful blossoms which each year cover our mountains and valleys. Many of our choicest species are rapidly disappearing before the encroachments of civilization, for the hardier weeds which follow cultivation are driving out our more delicate flowers even more rapidly than is our careless tourist. Some of our finest varieties of fern have already disappeared from the canyons which have been most frequented by man, and the speaker suggested that our new city might find legitimate employment in protecting the ferns of our canyons from further injury before they have entirely disappeared.

Children should be taught to love every living thing, for we must look to future generations for that cultivated public spirit which shall preserve inviolate our peculiar fauna and flora. Birds should be hunted by means of the opera glass or the camera, rather than by the gun. The knowledge of flowers should be gained by an intimate personal companionship with wood and field.

The little ones will be delighted to observe for themselves the many devices which the California plants have provided for the rapid production of seeds between the appearance of the first rains and the early drought. They will love to learn which insects visit a given flower and aid in its cross fertilization, and will be glad to discover that the bee prefers the blue flowers, while the humming bird and butterfly seek the bright red blossoms.

During the afternoon Miss Loise Nixon Hill, of Los Angeles, delighted the club by her effective and charming rendering of several flower and springtime songs which were as follows: "Celia and the Roses," "Squires," "Fairies," (from "The Daisy Chain,"), Liza Lehmann; "The Little Dutch Gar-

NO SHRINER PICNIC HERE

City Slow To Take Advantage Of Big Opportunity.

Last Friday, a number of wide-awake men of local prominence came to the decisive conclusion that something ought to be done, and done quickly, to get a party of Shriners, from the host that will flood Los Angeles, to spend a day in Sierra Madre, rightly assuming that no other move would do their little city more good in the way of advertising and publicity than this. Accordingly, hand bills were freely circulated about the town, to call, if possible, a sufficient number to an evening meeting for the purpose of carrying out the project. It seems, however, that either too short a notice was given or the people are slow to grasp an opportunity that would largely benefit the city. Not more than one-third the right number appeared at the town hall and consequently the meeting was not so enthusiastic as it might have been. The question of how to entertain the Shriners seemed to be the puzzler. Some were of the opinion that a trip to the quarter-way house, and a barbecue would be the proper thing. Others wanted to go up Carter's Canyon; and there were various other opinions and comments. After a lengthy harangue, the affair was given up as unfeasible.

Saturday morning two representatives of the Pacific Electric came to Sierra Madre to investigate the advisability of bringing out, say twenty car loads of the Shriners. An attempt was made to secure Carter's Canyon but the owners did not see fit to let the place for the day, thinking the great numbers might injure the property. The delegation returned, disappointed.

gregational church on Sunday evening next on the subject of "Medical Mis-

Dr. Green, a former resident of Sierra Madre, was quite seriously injured last week while driving from Whittier to Pasadena. He was driving a new team of horses and while passing between an automobile and a trolley car the horses became frightened, one of them shied away from the automobile crowding the other against the car, killing it instantly.
Dr. Green was thrown under the carriage causing his injuries. His many friends at Sierra Madre hope for his speedy recovery.

In order to meet some of the religious difficulties of the day, experienced by all thinking people, and especially by the young, Dr. Campbell, of the Congregational church, is delivering a course of sermons on Sunday mornings.
The sermon last Sunday was on the subject, "Things that cannot be shaken," and dealt with the permanent and transitory elements in religion. The sermon next Sunday morning will be on "The letter and spirit of the Bible," and that on the following Sunday on
"The Bible as a progressive revelation."

FRIDAY, APRIL 12, 1907.

THE lawyers have at last decided what name shall be given to Harry Thaw's mental state when he killed Stanford White. Delmas declares he would call it "dementia Americana," and then adds that it is a species of insanity which has been recognized in every State in this Union. "It is that species of insanity," says he, "which makes the American man believe his home, his wife, his daughters are sacred, and that whatsoever stains the virtue of his threshold violates the highest of human laws."

This insanity fad is getting to be something fierce. If a man or woman is not actually insane at the time of committing a crime, the amount of haggling the lawyers do over the case would drive any prisoner to the madhouse, and no jury could ever give a just decision after the usual jumbled mess of evidence.

In law nothing is certain but the expense. Law suits in which much money is involved are usually of long duration, ending only when there are no further "fees" in sight. The parties concerned may or may not obtain justice, as this depends to a great extent upon the combative abilities of the attorneys and the vigor with which one denounces the other's arguments. Two parties are usually benefited by a law suit of notoriety,—the lawyer and the yellow journal.

There is an old Chinese proverb which says that going to law is losing a cow for the sake of a cat. Wise old Ben Franklin said that a countryman between two lawyers is like a fish between two cats. The Jews ruin themselves at their passover; the Moors, at their marriages, and the Christians in their law suits.

Miss Hazel Rice is visiting friends in Covina for a few days.

ALREADY the newspapers are devoting space to the subject of next season's football. Not being able to end the game, an attempt has been made to mend it by revising the rules. Yet with all the attempts at softening the hard knocks and doing away with the brutality, last season's games left a ghastly record on the annals of football.

"Battling" Nelson, the pugilist, witnessed his first football game in Kansas City last fall. "Excuse Bat from mixing up with that bunch of murderers," said he, as twenty-one husky players demolished the twenty-second. "I'd rather take my chances in the same ring with Jeffries and Sharkey."

Darwin was right. Man hasn't been down out of the trees so long after all, when you come to consider the streaks of brutality that crop out in football games. All the world is one great zoo, and next to the gorilla, the football player is the fiercest animal in the menagerie. The man who talks about the spiritual sweetness of the human has to take a back seat while the game is in progress.

"You can no more play football with moderation," says one prominent writer, "than you can shoot a gun with moderation."

AN Arcadia correspondent to the El Monte Gazette states briefly that the Sierra Madre electric is to be extended to Arcadia. This may or may not be true; undoubtedly it is groundless rumor. The News can not see that this would benefit Sierra Madre materially or otherwise, unless, perhaps, the line was connected with the Los Angeles-Monrovia electric, (which would most likely be the case.) A ride from the city of Los Angeles through the beautiful orange and lemon groves, great vineyards and avenues of palms, to the mountain city, Sierra Madre, thence down through "Lucky Baldwin's" famous ranch and on to Monrovia, would be a trip not soon forgotten by even the most exacting tourist. The road would give Sierra Madre an outlet to the east. No doubt in time the whole San Gabriel valley will be a vast network of electric and steam railways, so that the buzz of the trolley and the shriek of the locomotive will be heard from "Old Baldy's" silver peak to the ocean.

ORISON SWEET MARDEN, editor of "Success", advises people to forget themselves. Have you ever walked the street with a badly sun-burned face and have every sympathetic gazabo you met first inquire what ailed you and then finished up by telling you your face looked like a beet or a spanked baby? If so, you surely feel like telling either Orison Sweet Marden or your friends to go to Helena, Montana.

Initiative: the act of buckling the harness on yourself, tightening the tugs, and pulling in the right direction while the other fellow kicks.

The "400" Defined.

"Pop," said Tommy, "what do the newspapers mean when they say 'a member of the 400'?"

"They refer, Tommy, to certain society men and women who think they are better than anybody else, and that's about all the thinking they do."

"Did you ever see one of 'em, pop?"

"I don't know, Tommy; but you can easily tell one if you happen to run across it."

"If its in a street car, it talks so loudly that you can't hear the roar of the wheels."

"If its in church, the plumes on its hat hide the preacher."

"If its at a party, the most of its clothes are in the dressing room."

"If its in an automobile, dodge it, if you are quick enough, and come home to mamma alive."

"If its walking on the side walk, it usually strides along as if it were taking the street home with it."

"If its in a theatre, you can tell by the stony stare in its face that the actors are doing good and intelligent work."

"If its in a railroad station, in full dress, you'll wonder why the locomotive doesn't jump the track and take to the woods."

"You can't miss it, Tommy."

"Jock."

"Jock" is a big white horse, owned by W. F. Hatfield. Jock has a history. He's used to do all sorts of stunts in Barnum & Bailey's show. Once he hauled a wagon containing a man and his family, across country from Kansas City to Los Angeles. In Los Angeles Jock grew thin and sickly and the owner gave him up as being no longer useful. But Dr. Hatfield found him and took him home to Sierra Madre. Today Jock is fat and healthy and has all the love, confidence and freedom which his master can bestow upon him. He is a kindly animal, knows how to obey to the letter, and enjoys life serenely amid the green pastures of his present home.

"O!" remarked the first fox hunter, "you should have seen Mr. Nuritch take that high hedge." "You surprise me!" exclaimed the other. "I thought the horse he rode wasn't much of a jumper." "Oh! the horse didn't take the hedge. Mr. Nuritch did it alone."—Philadelphia Press.

His Coachman—Professor, why is it that the moon allus shows the same face? The Professor—That is due to the circumstance that its revolution upon its axis is coincident with the revolution it makes in its orbit. The Coachman—Thankee. I thort it was somethin' like that.—Chicago Tribune.

A young man, fond of dancing, recently took a pedometer with him to a ball, and found that in the evening he had covered thirteen and a half miles. The aver-

Just think what would happen if the average girl were compelled to cover that much territory in one day while engaged in some useful household duty! Wouldn't her feeble limbs ache?—Exchange.

Suppose the young man who holds the first glass of intoxicating liquor in his hands were to hold it there five minutes, counting the cost of a burning brain; counting the cost of a palsied hand; counting the cost of a staggering step; counting the cost of broken hearts and tear-stained pillows; counting the cost of a blighted home; counting the cost of the self-respect that oozes out at the finger tips as they clasp the sparkling curse; counting the cost of the degradation and disgrace of a ruined body and lost soul. #### Obituary.

One of the sad events of the past week was the sudden death on Saturday morning, from scarlet fever, of Ralph Newman Coates, son of Principal and Mrs. W. A. Coates. He had been slightly ill for a few days and was thought to be recovering, when the disease took a turn for the worse, and he suddenly passed away. He was born in Pomona, October 1, 1902, so that at the time of his death he was about four years and a half old. In order to guard against all danger of contagion, his body was taken privately to the family burying place in the cemetery at Pomona, where it was laid beside that of his grandfather.

The sympathy of the entire community goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Coates in their sore affliction. The loss of their dear boy shatters their fondest parental hopes. He was a bright and winsome child; and the mystery of his early death is one of these things on which the full explanation can be given only on the other shore.

Dr. Campbell, on Sunday morning, made reference to the sorrowful event. He spoke of the little boy as having just been enrolled in the infant class in the Sunday School; and as having now been taken under the personal care of Good Shepherd who gathers the lambs in His bosom, and who has declared, "of such is the Kingdom of Heaven"; and who will one day give him back to the aching hearts that now mourn his absence.

The Christian hope by which our friends are sustained is voiced in the words:

" 'Tis sweetest balm to our despair,
Fond, fairest boy,
That Heaven is God's, and thou art there,
With Him in joy.
There past are death and all its woes,
There beauty's stream forever flows,
And pleasure's day no sunset knows.
Farewell then—for a while, farewell—
Pride of my heart;
It cannot be that long we dwell
Thus torn apart;
Time's shadows like the shuttle flee,
And dark how'er life's night may be,
Beyond the grave we'll meet with thee."

At the close tea was served and a social time enjoyed.

An illustrated lecture on Russia, by B. R. Mr. Baumgardt has very recently returned from an extended tour of travel and study in Europe, during which he made a special study of the conditions in Russia.

He is equipped with a stereopticon of unusual power, and will present one hundred and fifty views taken by himself, many of which are without duplicates anywhere, as he enjoyed exceptional facilities for securing them.

The reputation of Mr. Baumgardt as a brilliant speaker and thorough scholar is sufficient guarantee of the excellence of this entertainment.

Ordinance No. 6.

AN ORDINANCE of the Board of Trustees of the City of Sierra Madre providing for the appointment of a Pound Master, fixing his compensation and regulating his duties.

The Board of Trustees of the City of Sierra Madre do ordain as follows:

SECTION I. The running at large of any horses, colts, jacks, jennies, mules, meat cattle, calves, sheep, goats or hogs within the limits of the City of Sierra Madre upon any of the streets, alleys, uninclosed lots, open courts or places, public squares, parks or grounds, within said limits, is hereby declared to be a nuisance. It shall be unlawful for the owner or person having the custody or control of any of the animals above named to stake out, herd or graze any of said animals upon such street, alleys, open courts or places, public squares, parks or grounds within said city limits; or to stake out, herd or graze any of said animals, or to permit any of said animals to be staked, herded or grazed upon any uninclosed lot or private ground by means of ropes, lariats or other attachments in such a manner that such ropes, lariats or other attachments shall reach beyond the line of said lot or ground so that said animal may range, herd or graze therefrom upon any of said streets, alleys, open courts or places, public squares, parks or grounds, or occupy or obstruct any of the city streets in said city.

SECTION II. There shall be a Public Pound Keeper to be appointed by the Board of Trustees of said city upon the taking effect of this ordinance. Before entering upon the discharge of his duties said Pound Keeper shall give bond with two sufficient sureties, in the sum of Five Hundred (500) dollars, to be approved by said Board of Trustees, and shall be liable thereon for any violation of his duties and he shall be subject to removal at the pleasure of said Board of Trustees.

SECTION III. The Pound Keeper shall provide a corral at his own expense in which to impound any animals mentioned in Section One of this ordinance. All of said animals arrested and taken up while running at large, or staked out or herded or grazing contrary to the provisions of this ordinance, shall be impounded by said Pound Keeper in said corral, which shall be known as the City Pound. The Pound Keeper may at any time appoint deputies at his own proper expense, whose authority shall be the same as that of the Pound Keeper himself, to do and perform any act required pertaining to arresting, taking up, driving and impounding animals under this ordinance.

The Pound Keeper and his deputies while engaged in the execution of their duties shall each wear a plain, circular, metallic badge on the left breast of the outer garment with, for the Pound Keeper, the words "Pound Keeper," and for the deputies the words "Deputy Pound Keeper," plainly engraved thereon.

SECTION IV. Any resident of this City in the actual occupation of lands within its limits upon which any of the animals mentioned above may be found actually trespassing, may take up and without delay impound the same in the Public Pound, and any person may arrest and take up any animals mentioned in this ordinance which may be found running at large, or staked out, or herded, or grazing contrary to the provisions of this ordinance; but in such cases it shall be the duty of such person within twelve hours thereafter, or within four hours if the animal be attached to a vehicle, to give notice thereof to the Pound Keeper, and the Pound Keeper shall thereupon take such animal into his custody and impound it; and to every person to whom such animal may be delivered by the arresting person, or who shall have the possession of the same, shall forthwith, on demand, deliver such animal to the Pound Keeper. The person so arresting and taking up said animal shall be entitled to receive from the Pound Keeper out of the moneys collected by him upon the redemption or sale of said animal the arresting fee herein provided to be paid to the Pound Keeper for like services.

SEC. 5 It shall further be the duty of the said marshal of said city and his deputies to take up any animal so as aforesaid running at large in said city, or staked out, or herded, or grazed within said city contrary to the provisions hereof, and to deliver such animal to the Pound Keeper, or his deputy, at said City Pound where said Pound Keeper shall safely and properly keep said animal until redeemed or sold; provided that upon all animals taken while running away or escaped from their owners and which may be attached to a vehicle, or harnessed and detached from a vehicle, or saddled or bridled, there shall be no impounding fee charged if said animals be redeemed; but the Pound Keeper shall be allowed the charges herein provided for care and food supplied for said animals; provided, further, that the city marshal or his deputies shall be allowed the arresting fee for each animal by them taken up as aforesaid.

SECTION VI. The Pound Keeper shall keep a record of the number and description of all animals taken into his custody, by whom impounded, with the date of their receipt and date and manner of their disposal, and shall keep conspicuously posted at the entrance of the Pound a list of all animals therein detained. He shall also provide the necessary subsistence for all animals while in his custody. All animals mentioned in this ordinance which may be taken into custody of the Pound Keeper and which by reason of old age or disease, are unfit for further use, or may be dangerous to keep impounded by reason of infectious disease, shall be destroyed by the Pound Keeper; and in all such cases he shall enter in the record book to be kept by him the description of the animal destroyed together with the special reasons therefor.

SECTION VII. The Pound Keeper shall receive from the owner or agent claiming any of the following named animals impounded, in addition to the impounding fee, the following charges for care and food supplied per diem for the period of eight days if not sooner removed, to-wit:

Horses per day, 50 cents.
Colts per day, 25 cents.
Mules per day, 50 cents.
Jacks per day, 25 cents.
Jennies per day, 25 cents.
Neat Cattle per day, 50 cents.
Calves per day, 25 cents.
Sheep per day, 10 cents.
Goats per day, 10 cents.
Hogs per day, 10 cents.

The charges or fees for arresting or taking up any animal herein mentioned and for giving the notice herein required, or for arresting or taking up said animal and driving the same to the Public Pound, shall be one dollar for every horse, mule, jack, jennie, bull, cow or ox, and 50 cents for every colt, calf, yearling heifer, sheep, goat or hog; provided that not more than $10.00 shall be allowed for arresting or taking up and driving to the Public Pound any number of animals belonging to any single owner, or firm upon any single occasion.

The Pound Keeper shall collect said fees from the owner or person redeeming said animals from the Public Pound when said animals are redeemed, and shall pay over said impounding fee when collected, on demand to the person arresting and giving notice or arresting and impounding said animals. The fees and charges herein allowed to the Pound Keeper shall be in lieu of salary and in full compensation of all services rendered by him.

SECTION VIII. If there be no demand for any of the animals thus impounded, or if a claimant refuse to pay the rate of fees and charges allowed for impounding of said animals, the Pound Keeper is authorized and directed to advertise the same for sale on the third day after said impounding by posting up three written or printed notices in English, one of which shall be placed on the entrance of the City Pound, one on the bulletin board at the place of meeting of the Board of Trustees of said city, and the other at the post office of said City of Sierra Madre, giving the description, with the marks and brands of said animals, for five days; and for each animal so advertised, the Pound Keeper shall be entitled to 25 cents, to be collected as hereinafter provided; and on the day advertised, unless redeemed, shall offer for sale to the highest bidder for cash, said animal or animals, provided the bid is sufficient or more than enough to cover the expenses incurred in impounding and advertising said animal; and after deducting his fees for the whole number of days said animals were impounded, the arresting, driving and impounding fee, and for cost of advertising, shall pay the remainder, if any, at once to the City Treasurer, for the use of the owner if claimed within six months thereafter; if not so claimed, the same shall be credited to the general municipal fund. In case of a sale as aforesaid the legal title to said animal shall vest in the purchaser thereof, and said Pound Keeper shall thereupon execute to said purchaser a bill of sale of said animals, which shall be evidence of the legal transfer of the ownership of said animals to such purchaser.

SECTION IX. It shall be unlawful for any person to resist, obstruct or prevent the Pound Keeper or any of his deputies in the performance of his or their duties as prescribed herein, and any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor; and in case the Pound Keeper or his deputies or any of them shall violate any of the provisions of this ordinance or fail to fulfill and comply with his duties herein prescribed he or they shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. Any person convicted of a misdemeanor under this ordinance shall be punishable in a fine not to exceed $100.00, or by imprisonment for a period not to exceed fifty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

SECTION X. The City Clerk shall certify to the adoption of this ordinance and shall cause the same to be published once in the "Sierra Madre News," a weekly newspaper published and circulated in the City of Sierra Madre, which newspaper is hereby designated for that purpose, and thereupon and thereafter the same shall take effect and be in force.

The foregoing ordinance was adopted by the Board of Trustees of the City of Sierra Madre at a regular meeting of said Board held on the 11th day of April, 1907, by the affirmative vote of at least three Trustees, to-wit:

AN ORDINANCE of the Board of Trustees of the City of Sierra Madre regulating the keeping of Dogs, and providing for the licensing of the same.

The Board of Trustees of the City of Sierra Madre do ordain as follows:

SECTION I. It is hereby declared to be unlawful for any person owning or having charge, care, or control of any dog, to have or keep the same within the corporate limits of the city of Sierra Madre, and no dog shall be permitted to be and remain within the said corporate limits thereof unless there shall be attached to said dog a collar on which there shall be a metal tag obtained from the City Tax and License Collector of said city, or the pound-master, or dog-catcher thereof as hereinafter provided and inscribed as hereinafter provided.

SECTION II. The said City Tax and License Collector is hereby authorized and directed to procure every year prior to the 1st day in June, at least one hundred (100) metal tags, and as many additional tags as may be necessary thereafter during such year, with the year plainly inscribed thereon, such tags to be effective until the 1st day of June of the year next ensuing and no longer.

SECTION III. Said Tax and License Collector shall furnish tags to the owner, or owners, of dogs, or person or persons having care, charge or control thereof, applying therefor, for the following sums:

For each male dog, the sum of one ($1.00) dollar, and for each female dog, the sum of two ($2.00) dollars, and shall keep a register wherein shall be entered the name of the owner to whom the tag has been issued and the number and date thereof. All taxes issued for male dogs in addition to the inscription above provided for shall have the letter "M" stamped thereon, and all tags issued for female dogs shall in addition to said inscription have the letter "F" stamped thereon in such a manner as to be plainly seen.

SECTION IV. The City Tax and License Collector shall also furnish such tags to the dog-catcher and pound-master, when required by them, or either of them, in quantities not to exceed ten at a time and at the price of $1.00 for each tag for a male dog and $2.00 for each tag for a female dog, and shall enter into his register opposite the number of each tag so furnished the name of the owner of the dog for which same is issued, and the date of the issuance of the tag, the name of such owner to be furnished to said City Tax and License Collector or by said dog-catcher or pound-master as hereinafter provided. Said Tax and License Collector shall pay all moneys collected for tags into the City Treasury according to law, and such moneys shall constitute a special fund to be known as the Dog Tax Fund.

SECTION V. It is hereby declared unlawful for any person to imitate, simulate or counterfeit said tag or plate or use an imitation, simulation or counterfeit of said tag or plate in Sections 2 and 3 of this ordinance described, upon any tag within the limits of the city of Sierra Madre.

SECTION VI. The Board of Trustees of the city of Sierra Madre shall upon the taking effect of this ordinance appoint a dog-catcher who shall receive the compensation hereinafter provided for, and no other, for the services by him rendered hereunder.

SECTION VII. It is hereby made the duty of said dog-catcher and his assistants if any be appointed by him, to take up and forthwith deliver to the pound-master of said city all dogs found in the streets, alleys, lanes, parks or other public places, or upon any vacant, unoccupied or unenclosed lots, land or premises within the corporate limits of said city of Sierra Madre, unless a tag be attached thereto as in this ordinance provided, and unless such dog so taken up is immediately redeemed by the owner thereof as provided by the next following section of this ordinance. All dogs so taken up and not redeemed as aforesaid shall upon the delivery thereof to the pound-master be impounded by him in the public pound as hereinafter provided.

SECTION VIII. It is hereby made the duty of the dog-catcher and his assistants, if any, to keep themselves provided with tags to be furnished them by the Tax and License Collector as in Sections 2 and 3 of this ordinance provided, and if application is made to said dog-catcher or his assistants for the release of any dog taken up by them, immediately after the taking up of such dog, he or his assistants shall release such dog and deliver a tag to the person demanding such release upon the payment to him of the sum of $2.50, and he shall thereupon make return to the Tax and License Collector of the number of the tag so delivered, together with the name of the owner of the dog so released.

SECTION IX. The pound-master shall keep confined at the public pound properly provided with food and water for three days all dogs delivered to him by the dog catcher, or his assistants,

The pound-master must provide himself with tags purchased from the Tax and License Collector and shall furnish the same to all persons applying therefor upon the payment of $2.00 each and shall make return at once to the Tax and License Collector of the number of the tag sold, together with the name of the owner of the dog purchasing the same. A description of all dogs impounded shall be posted up by the pound-master at the public pound and at the office of the Marshal and kept posted for three days. All dogs which are not redeemed within three days after the description thereof has been so posted must be by the pound-master killed in some manner that will not cause unnecessary suffering on the part of such dog, and at the times as hereinafter provided. All dogs killed as herein provided must be buried at least three feet below the surface of the ground: Provided, however, that the dog-catcher or pound-master may dispose of any unredeemed dog, after the expiration of the three days' notice by gift or sale to any person who will pay the pound fee and procure the necessary tag for the current year.

SECTION X. The dog-catcher shall be entitled to receive the following fees for his services, to-wit:

For each dog taken up which is redeemed before delivery to the pound-master, 50 cents, to be paid by the owner as in Section 8 of this ordinance provided.

For each dog delivered to the pound-master and which is redeemed by the owner or sold after the expiration of the three days' notice as herein provided, one-half of the pound fee specified in Section 9 of this ordinance.

For each dog delivered to the pound-master which is killed and buried, as in this ordinance provided, the sum of 50 cents, to be paid out of the Dog Tax Fund.

The pound-master shall be entitled to one-half of the pound fee for each dog redeemed from public pound or one-half of the pound fee paid for each unredeemed dog which is sold to any person other than the former owner. For each dog which is unredeemed and killed and buried by him, the pound-master shall receive the sum of 50 cents to be paid out of the Dog Tax Fund.

SECTION XI. The word "dog" whenever used in this ordinance shall be deemed to include a female as well as a male dog.

SECTION XIII.
